

INDEX.

- Academies, persistence of, as a heading in catalogues, 224
- Acrostic, revealing authorship of 'Modus Legendi Abbreviaturas,' 181 sq.
- Amphlett, James, his recollections, especially of Coleridge, 34-7.
- Antwerp, books with Marburg imprint probably printed at, 119 sq., 124 sq.
- Astraea, poem by O. W. Holmes, history of, 356 sqq.
- 'Atheist Converted, The,' W. E. A. Axon on, 319-22.
- Autocrat of the Breakfast Table (O. W. Holmes) as Book-lover, paper by W. E. A. Axon, 356-62.
- Axon, W. E. A., on James Amphlett and S. T. Coleridge, 34-9; on 'The Atheist Converted,' the first book printed at Lincoln, 312-22; on 'The Autocrat' (O. W. Holmes) as Book-lover, 356-62.
- Baker, Betty, see Betty.
- Bale, John, Bishop, 'Marburg' type recast for his books, 123, 130 sq.; his share in Leland's 'New Yeares Gift,' 141 sq.
- Balsam of Chili sold on London Bridge, 393.
- Barnes, Betty, see Betty.
- Beam-Papers, discovery of, at Christ's College, Cambridge, 338 sqq.
- Bembo, Pietro, Aldine italics perhaps based on his hand, 69; his ownership of Petrarch's autograph of the 'Opere volgari,' 71 sqq.
- Berthelet, Thomas, his bills for books supplied to Katherine Parr, 40-8.
- Betty (Baker or Barnes?), John Warburton's cook, article by W. W. Greg on her bakings, i.e., destruction of old plays, 225-59.
- Bible, English, Coverdale's version, type of 1535 edition found at Upsala, 274; version of 1611, red printing in, 173-80, 323-27; copy of 1611 edition bought for Worcester Cathedral, 9; Elizabeth of Bohemia's copy of quarto of 1612 at Heidelberg, 260-72.
- Bible, Latin, called Bibliotheca, 4; printing of the 42- and 36-line Bibles, 202 sq., 403; types used in, copied from manuscripts, 302 sq.
- Bibliotheca, the word used for a Bible, 4.
- Bibliotheca Celtica, notice of, 222 sq.
- Bodleian Library, its 1674 catalogue adapted to other libraries, 19 sq.
- Book Prices Current, notice of vol. xxiv., 109.
- Booksellers of London Bridge, references to in accounts of St. Magnus, Thames Street, 384-95.

- Botfield, Beriah, on Worcester Cathedral Library, 19, 29.
- Brant, Sebastian, his influence at Strassburg, 370 sqq.
- British Museum, Lansdowne MSS. acquired by, 228.
- Bronte, the Sisters, a French criticism of, 51 sq.
- Burton, William, his ownership of Leland MSS., 147.
- Bury St. Edmunds, Leland's visit to, 145.
- Cambridge Fragments, article by C. Sayle, 339-55.
- Cannons, H. G. T., his Bibliography of Library Economy noticed, 221.
- Canterbury Libraries, Leland's visit to, 144.
- Carpenter, Bishop, his foundation of a library at Worcester Cathedral, 7.
- Caxton, W., fragment of the Donatus Melior of Mancinellus printed by, found at Cambridge, 350 sq.
- Chained Books, a mark of a public, as opposed to a monastic, library, 7 note.
- Chambers, F. W., his catalogue of the Dante Collection at University College, London, noticed, 224.
- Chapman, Alexander, chaplain to Elizabeth of Bohemia, 269.
- Chaucer, Geoffrey, notice of M. Legouis's book on, 151 sq.
- Child's book (c. 1820), fragment of, found at Cambridge, 354.
- Chivers, Cedric, notice of his pamphlet on the paper of lending library books, 110.
- Christ's College, Cambridge, discovery of fragments of Early English printing at, 339-55.
- Churchwardens' Accounts, their interest, 384; reference to book-sellers in those of St. Magnus, Thames Street, 385-95.
- Clarke, Archibald, on John Leland and Henry VIII., 132-49.
- Civil War Tracts in National Library of Wales, catalogue of, noticed, 441.
- Clerk of the Closet, duties of, 45 sqq.
- Cock, family of engravers at Antwerp, suggested attribution of design of Cambridge beam-papers to, 342.
- Coleridge, S. T., recollections of, by J. Amphlett, 34-9.
- Colvin, Sir Sidney, on early beam-papers found at Cambridge, 343.
- Copinger, Dr., quoted as to John Leland, 139 sqq.
- 'Coster' types, how they are linked together, 293; their peculiarities found in contemporary manuscripts, 298 sq.
- Coulon, Marcel, his 'Témoignages,' 52 sq.
- Dante Collection, at University College, London, notice of catalogue of, 224.
- Devereux, Robert, 2nd Earl of Essex, decoration of his rooms at Cambridge, 344 note.
- Dix, E. R. Mc, note on Old Dublin Stationer's Will and Inventory, 379-83.
- Dring, E. H., his communication as to False Dates in Shakespeare Quartos, 105-7.
- Dringenberg, Ludwig, master of fifteenth century school at Schlettstadt, 364.
- Dublin Stationer's Will and Inventory, 379-83.

- Dziatkzo, Dr., his views on Gutenberg criticized, 290 sqq.
- Elizabeth of Bohemia, her copy of an English 4to Bible of 1612 at Heidelberg, 260-72.
- Elsass, Early Humanists of, paper by S. H. Scott, 363-78.
- Enschedé, Ch., his theory as to early types, 301.
- Ernst, Otto, his essays of German poets, 284 sq.
- Estienne, H., his eulogy of the Frankfort Book-Fair, 220.
- Fisher, Bishop, different issues of his sermon against Luther, 314 sq.
- Floyer, J. K., his work as librarian of Worcester Cathedral, 3, 5, 7 note, 14, 28.
- Fowler, Mary, on the autographs of Petrarch's 'Rerum Vulgarium Fragmenta,' 61-100.
- Francesco da Bologna, as Aldus's typecutter, 69.
- Frankfort Book Fair, notice of translation of H. Estienne's eulogy of, 220.
- Franklin, Alfred, his 'La vie privée au temps des premiers capétiens' praised, 427 sq.
- French Literature, see Recent Foreign Literature.
- Frisket sheets for red printing, 324.
- Fust, Johann, his loans to Gutenberg, 397 sqq.
- Gazette des Beaux Arts, Index to Vols. 1-50 noticed, 335 sq.
- Geiler von Kaisersberg, his influence on early Strassburg humanists, 365, 368.
- German Literature, see Recent Foreign Literature.
- Gide, André, his lectures on the drama discussed, 278.
- Gilson, J. P., his defence of Henry VIII. as a book-lover, 136 sq.
- Glastonbury Abbey Library, Leland's visit to, 145.
- Godiva, wife of Leofric, Duke of Mercia, her gift of a Bible to Worcester Cathedral, 4.
- Grabén, Paul, criticism of his novel 'Die Herren der Erde,' 423 sq.
- Gray, G. J., on different issues of Fisher's Sermon against Luther, 314 sqq.
- Greg, W. W., on The Bakings of Betsy—i.e., the supposed destruction of old plays by John Warburton's cook, 225-59.
- Griffin, J., his work as librarian of Worcester Cathedral, 22 sqq.
- Grover, Isaac, stationer of Dublin, note of his will and inventory, 379-83.
- Gutenberg, Johann, articles by Dr. Hessels on the so-called Gutenberg documents, 183-211, 289-313, 396-421; list of books and types attributed to, 184 sqq.; Zedler's imaginary balance-sheet for, 410.
- Hardy, Thomas, a French criticism of, noticed, 279 sq.
- Harper, William, clerk of the closet to Catherine Parr, 40, 44-8.
- Hart, Horace, on the red-printing in the 1611 Bible, 173-82; criticized by R. B. McKerrow, 323-27.
- Hauptmann, Gerhart, notice of his 'Der Narr in Christo,' 56.
- Hedgecock, M. F. A., his book on Thomas Hardy, 279 sq.
- Heidelberg, Elizabeth of Bohemia's copy of the English 4to Bible of 1612 at, 260-72.

- Helmasperger, Ulrich, discussion of his notarial document as to Gutenberg and Fust, 396-421.
- Henry VII., poem on the death of, found at Cambridge, 346 sqq.; compared with similar poems at the Bodleian, 348 sq.
- Henry VIII., article by Archibald Clarke on his employment of Leland, 132-49; copies of two early proclamations of, found at Cambridge, 340, 345 sqq.
- Herbert, J. A., his 'Illuminated Manuscripts' reviewed, 432 sq.
- Hessels, J. H., articles on 'the so-called Gutenberg documents' by, 183-211, 289-313, 396-421.
- Holmes, Oliver Wendell, as a book-lover, 356-62; as a book-binder, 361.
- Hooper, J. H., librarian of Worcester Cathedral, 8, 27 sqq.
- Hopkins, William, services to Worcester Cathedral Library, 14 sqq.
- Hoskier, H. C., review of his edition of the Hamilton Gospels, 328 sqq.
- Humanists, the early, of Elsass, paper by S. H. Scott, 363-78.
- Hunnis, William, review of Mrs. Stopes's life of, 217-19.
- Hurlock, G., stationer, reference to, 387 sq.
- Incunabula, at Worcester Cathedral Library, 29.
- Indulgence, of Julius II., fragment found at Cambridge, 349.
- Jaggard, William, review of his Shakespeare Bibliography, 331-5.
- Jane, Miss, poem on her Mamma's illness, 354.
- Joe, his theft of jam, 354.
- Julius II., fragment of Indulgence of, found at Cambridge, 349.
- Koeck, family of engravers at Antwerp, see Cock.
- Lansdowne MSS., their sale to the British Museum, 228.
- Laurent, Raymond, French critic, 49.
- Lee, Elizabeth, articles by, on Recent Foreign Literature, 49-60, 150-63, 277-88, 422-31.
- Legouis, M., notice of his book on Chaucer, 151 sq.
- Leland, John, article by Arch. Clarke on his commission from Henry VIII., 132-49.
- Lepelletier, Edmond, his 'Histoire de la Commune de 1871' discussed, 428 sq.
- L'Estrange, Sir R., one of Sir E. Peirce's pamphlets wrongly ascribed to, 169.
- Lincoln, the first book printed at, 'The Atheist Converted,' 319-22.
- Liverpool, version of 'The Atheist Converted' at, 321.
- Locher, Jakob, his quarrel with Wimpeling, 373.
- London Bridge, references to its booksellers in accounts of St. Magnus, Thames Street, 384-95.
- Luft, Hans, English books professedly printed by, at Marburg, 113-21.
- Magnus, St., Church of, Thames Street, references to booksellers in its churchwardens' accounts, 384-95.
- Mainz, De Ricci's census of first incunabula printed at, reviewed, 437 sqq.
- Malcolm, C. A., on the library of a Forfarshire laird (in 1710), 212-16.
- Mancinellus, fragment of Caxton's

- edition of his 'Donatus Melior' found at Cambridge, 350.
- Manutius, Aldus, his edition of Petrarch's 'Trionfi,' 62, 68-78; his italics, 69 note.
- Marburg, English books professedly printed at, 113-31.
- Mather, Cotton, his 'Magnalia,' 359, 361.
- McKerrow, R. B., on red printing in the 1611 Bible, 323-27.
- Medinbach, Johann, probably helped Gutenberg, 398 note.
- Men, meaning of the middle-German word, 406 note.
- Meredith, George, a French criticism of, 50.
- 'Modus Legendi Abbreviaturas,' its authorship, 181 sq.
- Molinier, H. J., his books on Oct. and Mellin de Saint-Gelays noticed, 153 sq.
- Monastic libraries, their treatment by Henry VIII., 137 sqq.
- Moore, Prior William, his gift of books to Worcester Cathedral, 8, 30 sqq.
- Moseley, Humphrey, lists of plays copyrighted by, 237 sq., 240 sqq.
- Moule, H. F., on the use at Upsala of the type of the first English Bible, 273-6.
- Mumby, F. A., his 'Romance of Bookselling' noticed, 108.
- Murner, Thomas, his controversy with Wimpeling, 372.
- Neidig, William J., his new evidence as to False Dates in Shakespeare Quartos, 101-7.
- Nicolaus Bambergensis, fanciful imprint, 123.
- Nolhac, Pierre de, his discovery of Petrarch's autograph of the 'Opere volgari,' 87 sqq.
- Norris, Thomas, bookseller on London Bridge, 394 sq.
- Orsini, Fulvio, his bequest of manuscripts to the Vatican, 65, 79 sqq.
- Pakscher, Arthur, his discovery of Petrarch's autograph of the 'Opere volgari,' 87 sq.
- Parr, Katherine, paper on Two Book-bills of, 40-8; copies of her Prayers and Meditations supplied to, 43 sq.
- Passinger, Thomas, bookseller on London Bridge, references to, 389 sqq.
- Pater, Walter, a French criticism of, 49.
- Pearce, Sir Edmond, royalist pamphleteer, 164-72.
- Petrarca, Francesco, paper by Mary Fowler, on the autographs of his Rerum Vulgarium Fragmenta, 61-100; legend that the Aldine italics were based on his hand, 69.
- Philpotts, Bishop, his gift of books to Worcester Cathedral, 27.
- Pierson, Abraham, first President of Yale (1701-7), O. W. Holmes's reference to, 358 and note.
- Plateanus, Theodoricus, see Straten, D. van der, 122 sq.
- Plays, list of those copyrighted by H. Moseley and H. Robinson, 237 sq., 240 sqq.
- Plomer, H. R., on Sir Edmond Pearce, royalist pamphleteer, 164-72; on the Church of St. Magnus and the booksellers of London Bridge, 384-95.
- Pollard, A. W., additional notes by, on False Dates in Shakespeare Quartos, 101-7; Notices

- and Reviews by, 108-12, 217-21, 328-35, 432-40.
- Prague, Elizabeth of Bohemia's Bible looted at, 263, 271.
- Prideaux, John, Bishop of Worcester, many of his books in Worcester Cathedral Library, 13.
- Prideaux, W. R. B., review of 'Table Générale to Gazette des Beaux Arts' by 335 sq.
- Printing in red and black, early methods of, 173-80, 323-27.
- Proclamations of Henry VIII. (1509), discovery of, at Christ's College, Cambridge, 340, 345 sqq.
- Psalms and Prayers taken out of holye Scripture, copies supplied to Katherine Parr, 41.
- Pynson, R., fragments of proclamations from his press found at Cambridge, 341 sqq.
- Quentell, Peter, reasons against his having printed Tyndale's first New Testament, 114 sq.
- Rats, mummified bodies of, wrapt in printed fragments, found at Cambridge, 341, 350 sq.
- Recent Foreign Literature, articles on, by Elizabeth Lee, 49-60, 150-63, 277-88, 422-31.
- Ricci, Seymour de, review of his census of early Mainz books, 437 sqq.
- Richolff, Georg, used type of first English Bible at Upsala, 274 sqq.
- Riedlin, Erhard, at one time owner of Elizabeth of Bohemia's Bible, 265 sq.
- Robinson and Moseley, plays copy-righted by (1646), 237 sq., 242.
- Rose-Troup, F., paper on Two Book-bills of Katherine Parr, 40-8.
- Saint-Gellays, Mellin de, notice of Molinier's book on, 153 sq.
- Savage, Ernest, his 'Medieval Libraries' reviewed, 440 sq.
- Sayle, Charles, adviser to the library of Worcester Cathedral, 29 sq.; paper by, on Cambridge Fragments, 339-55.
- Schlettstadt, famous fifteenth century school at, 363 sq.; literary sodalitas at, 376.
- Schoeffer, Peter, reasons for attributing the 42-line Bible to, 304 sq.
- Scholderer, J. V., discovers author's acrostic in 'Modus legendi abbreviaturas,' 181 sq.
- Schott, Peter, early Strassburg humanist, sketch of, 364 sqq.
- Schwenke, Dr., his writings on Gutenberg criticized by Dr. Hessels, 183 sqq., 209, 292.
- Scott, S. H., paper by, on the Early Humanists of Elsass, 363-78.
- Scott, Sir Walter, calls Warburton's cook Betty Barnes, 226.
- Shakespeare Quarto, False Dates in, Notes by A. W. Pollard, 101-7.
- Shipley, A., Master of Christ's College, Cambridge, note on mummified rats found there, 341.
- Singing Breads, meaning of the term, 47.
- Size-notation, 223.
- Steele, Robert, on Hans Luft of Marburg, 113-31.
- Stopes, Mrs. C. C., review of her 'William Hunnis,' 217-19.

- Strachan, L. R. M., on an Historic Bible (1612, 4to) at Heidelberg, 260-72.
- Strassburg, literary sodalitas at, 374 sqq.
- Straten, Dirck van der (Theod. Plateanus), uses 'Marburg' type at Wesel, 122.
- Stuart, John, stationer on London Bridge, 393.
- Sudermann, Hermann, his 'Die indische Lilie,' 282.
- Swiss Literature, notice of a history of, 156.
- Thompson, Thomas, Master of Christ's College, Cambridge (1510-17), find of documents concerning, 341, 352 sq.
- Three Bibles, two shops with sign of, on London Bridge, 392.
- Tracy, John, stationer on London Bridge, 393.
- Tyndale, William, his connection with English books with Marburg imprint, 113-31; his first New Testament probably not printed by Quentell, 114 sq.; the printing of his Pentateuch, 120 sq.
- Types, early, their close connection with manuscripts, 295 sq.; 302 sq.; similarity between different founts no evidence of common origin, 294, 306 note.
- Ulrich and Afra, Monastery at Augsburg, expenses of starting printing there, 400.
- Upsala, type of first edition of Coverdale's Bible, found at, 274 sqq.
- Vindel, Pedro, notice of his Bibliografía gráfica, 111 sq.
- Visan, Tancrède, de, criticism of his 'L'Attitude du lyrisme contemporaine,' 424 sqq.
- Wales, National Library of, notice of its Report and Catalogue of Civil War Tracts, 441.
- Warburton, John, the supposed destruction of old plays by his cook, article by W. W. Greg, 225-59.
- Wedderburn, Sir Alexander, article on his library (1710), 212-16.
- Wernher of Schussenried, author of Modus Legendi Abbreviaturas, 181 sq.
- Wesel, 'Marburg' type used at, before 1548, by D. van der Straten, 122.
- Westminster Abbey, Chapter House Library, duplicate manuscripts from Worcester Cathedral given to, 10.
- Wilson, J. M., on the Library of Printed Books in Worcester Cathedral, 1-33.
- Wimpheling, Jakob, early Alsatian humanist, sketch of, 364 sqq.
- Wolf, Thomas, friend of Jakob Wimpheling, 368 sqq.
- Women writers, notices of books on, 154 sq.
- Worcester Cathedral, the library of printed books in, 1-33.
- Worde, Wynkyn de, fragments printed by, found at Cambridge, 340 sqq.
- Wren, Sir Christopher, entries as to, in accounts of St. Magnus, Thames Street, 389.
- Zedler, Dr., his writings on Gutenberg criticized by Dr. Hessels, 183 sqq., 290 sqq., 396 note, 397, 401 note, 409, 410 sq., 414 sq.